THE MONTANA CO-OCCURRING DISORDERS (COD) SYSTEM TRANSFORMATION PLAN

Stakeholders

HOW WE WILL GET THERE

WHERE WE ARE GOING

Co-Occurring
Disorders (COD)
Communication Plan

Engaging & welcoming environment.

Address gaps and barriers in the service system.

Data and information management plan.

COD Training & Core Competencies for clinicians and programs.

Funding Plan

Consistent "Expectation, Not Exception" message
Information packages and presentations

Stakeholder consensus on CCISC* Model

Cultural competency resources Welcoming policy

Identify gaps in service
Identify barriers to integration
Define continuum or system of care

Analysis of current data capacity.

Get technical assistance.

Identify methods for managing information on COD implementation

COD training and planning committee

Infrastructure for dissemination of Best Practices information.

Administrative Rule changes for clinicians and programs

Assess current spending

Issue Funding Policy for current funding streams

Identify new funding sources

WHO WILL DO IT

KNOW WHEN WE

HAVE ARRIVED

Awareness of COD and the need for an Integrated Service System.

Integrated Service System

Centralized data management system

COD Competent Work Force

Financing for the Integrated Service System

Co-Occurring
Strategy Team

Change
Agents

Fin

Policy

You?

*Comprehensive Continuous Integrated System of Care